Safety First, is an independent community-based emergency medical service organization located in Newark's West Ward. The entity provides a range of safety training services including; CPR, First Aid, Lifeguard training. Safety First staffs and operates EMS motorcycles. Most recently they offered their free CPR training to high school seniors of the METS Charter School in Newark.

This correspondence is provided as my endorsement of the efforts of Safety First to provide a volunteer Emergency Medical Response service to the residents of Newark. The organization has been providing volunteer EMS response services to the community for well over two decades.

Furthermore, I salute the dedication of Safety First to being a community based, volunteer emergency medical service organization. Safety First is not affiliated with any other agency and receives no municipal funding for its operations.

The city is in need of a volunteer medical service that provides training that improves the safety of the ward and the city overall in order to increase the overall quality of life for its residents.

Sincerely,

Senator Ronald L. Rice
